Day Trips: July-September 2016

Jimmy Cantler's Riverside Inn

Cantler's waterfront restaurant and crab house (Annapolis) has been serving the area's freshest seafood to watermen, boaters, and land lovers alike for nearly four decades. The Inn is located along the quiet waters of Mill Creek. Our group menu: All You Can Eat/Drink: steamed hard-shell crabs, steamed shrimp, corn on the cob, coleslaw, French fries, onion rings, iced tea and soft drinks.

National Capital Trolley Museum

The museum (Colesville, MD) includes a tour of the trolley warehouse, a little film about the history of trolleys in small-town America, and, of course, unlimited rides on the trolleys themselves (which typically run every half hour). You can wander around the museum and read about the history of trolleys in Washington, DC. There is an interactive display of the streetcar system that once ran along Connecticut Ave. We will stop for lunch at a local restaurant. www.dctrolley.org

Roundtop Mountain Adventures

Experience a variety of activities found nowhere else (Lewisberry, PA). Roll down the hill in an 11 foot inflatable OGO ball, ride the scenic chairlift, zip line from a tower, splash in bumper boats, climb the giant staircase, and explore the cedar maze. Enjoy each activity as often as you like. This is an outdoor experience so be sure to wear comfortable clothing appropriate for the weather. Closed toe athletic type shoes are best. For the OGO Ball, be sure to bring a swimsuit or a change of clothes as you will get soaked!

Barn Quilt Trail

This driving trail features 22 scenic barns adorned with a large colorful quilt block. (We might not get to all 22 barns but we will see a number of them.) The barn quilt trail is a great way to celebrate this traditional American art form as well as experience the beautiful scenery of Carroll County. The Carroll County Barn Quilt Trail is a partnership between the Carroll County Office of Tourism, the Carroll County Arts Council, Everybody's Quilt Guild and the Carroll County Department of Recreation & Parks. We will stop for lunch at a local restaurant.

Hotel Hershey & Gardens

Overlooking the town of Hershey, Hershey Gardens features a breathtaking assortment of flowers and shrubs and a stately collection of rare, signature trees. Hershey Gardens opened in 1937 with Milton Hershey's request to "create a nice garden of roses." Through the years, the 3-1/2 acre rose garden has blossomed into 23 acres of botanical beauty. Enjoy 11 themed gardens, the Children's Garden and the Butterfly House.
